

Great Crowds Follow Teacher

...the newspaper headlines would read if Jesus were here today. The emphasis would be on the "Great Crowds". But, Jesus didn't come for the great crowds. He came for me, and he came for you.

Lately the news in Hilliard and around the country has centered on the tragedy at Columbine High School. Children were kept home, teachers called in sick and more police were assigned to schools, all across the nation, on April 20th, the second anniversary of the tragedy at Columbine H.S.

The media has dubbed the events at Columbine as a tragedy, and for all of those on the wide path it was. However, Matthew 7:14 says "because, narrow is the gate and difficult is the path which leads to life, and few will find it." For those of us on the narrow path it was a victory. God used it, most obviously through Cassie Bernall, as a testament of faith. Facing death, Cassie proclaimed her faith and paid the price. However, through her death she brought thousands to faith in Jesus, and true victory.

Jesus calls each of us to proclaim our faith and not to live in fear. In today's society that is difficult. But that's life on the narrow path.

DeColores,
Ron Burkitt

Ever wonder about the abbreviation A.S.A.P

Generally we think of it in terms of even more hurry and stress in our lives. Maybe if we think of this abbreviation in a different manner, we will begin to find a new way to deal with those rough days along the way. "There's work to do, deadlines to meet; You've got no time to spare, But as you hurry and scurry – ASAP – Always Say A Prayer

CENTRAL OHIO EMMAUS COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

Epiphany: A letter was received from Jo Zahn, Chairperson of Epiphany, entitled March 2000. Here are a few highlights from the letter. The letter in its entirety can be seen on the Central Ohio web site – www.centralohioemmaus.org.

In Ohio, March has traditionally become “Epiphany Month” at the Central Ohio Emmaus Community monthly gathering in Marysville, Ohio and on March 13th what an Epiphany took place in that church for that community! Our “Star” Randall spoke from his heart as he gave his testimony, while at the same time entering the hearts of those in attendance. Randall was overwhelmed by those thanking him for his witness and encouraging him to continue his walk with the Lord. Chaplain Frost also affirmed Randall to begin her witness to the community from the eyes of one working inside the Institution with incarcerated juveniles. She went on to tell the community just how much the juveniles need to know and feel God’s love and that Epiphany does just that. She expressed her sincere thanks to the Central Ohio Emmaus community for their continued support of the Epiphany program. We sincerely thank the Central Ohio Emmaus Community for the opportunity they have given Epiphany to share our program with the community. In His service,

Jo Zahn
