Summer Servants

Scot Ocke - Community Spiritual Director

⁵Have this ATTITUDE among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but emptied himself, taking the form of a SERVANT, being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. ⁹Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, ¹⁰that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

It is finally summer time! I love summer; in fact our family is looking forward to vacation very soon. The downfall of summer is it can be very easy to get complacent and stop paying attention to our spiritual lives. We may tend to let our devotional life slip, or not attend church regularly, and forget the importance of loving and serving our neighbors. As beautiful as summer can be, it can tend to inhibit our Walk with the Lord if we are not careful.

In looking through the Gospels, I cannot find one example of Jesus taking the summer off. There were just too many hurting and broken people around Him who needed His touch of grace and His Word of encouragement. These people are still all around us. Look around; pain, anxiety, and sickness do not take a vacation from us. Hurting people are everywhere. If our attitude is to be the same as Jesus', then we need to continue our commitment of living lives of piety, study, and Christian action.

So let's continue to worship, study, pray, serve, and come to share groups and gatherings this summer. And please be sure to pray for and serve the women of Walk #84 which takes place July 14-17. There is always an opportunity to work in the kitchen, help with logistics, carry luggage, sponsor a pilgrim, come to Candlelight and Closing, write an agape letter, and be a part of the 72 hour prayer vigil. Also, Men's Walk #51 will be held September 15-18 so that team is forming and will be working hard this summer getting ready. Let us support our brothers and sisters in Christ!

Have a great summer, but be sure to include Jesus and your neighbor! It is my prayer that He will open our eyes to all who are around us and that we will have the same attitude about serving them that Jesus does. I pray this summer you will be served by Christ and you will have the attitude to serve those around you. If you do, I am sure you will see Him this summer. He will be walking with you wherever you go. DeColores!

In His love,

Pastor Scot Ocke

SEPTEMBER IS SHARE GROUP MONTH

Do you want to keep the feeling of your Emmaus Walk going through your Fourth Days? Share Groups are a great way to continue the sense of community going, as well as providing an opportunity for service. As the Upper Room Web Site says, "Share groups provide a natural launching pad for mission in the community. Share groups are also a support base for acts of agape for Emmaus weekends. Shared engagement in service to others deepens friendships and opens up avenues for Christian action".

At the September Gathering (Tuesday, Sept. 12th) our focus will be on Share Groups. We will be hearing Fourth Day talks that illustrate the importance of Share Groups, as well as hearing about exactly what Share Groups are and aren't, how to find a Share Group, and how to keep your Share Group going.

This is a great opportunity to attend with your Share Group and make an evening of it. Go out to dinner and then join together in worship and celebration. Or, go out for dessert afterwards! Either way, it is sure to be a memorable evening.

If you aren't currently in a Share Group, this is a great chance to learn more about them. We even have people in our community who are here to help! The Men's and Women's Good Shepherds are here to assist you in finding and joining a Share Group. They are Steve Kopec and Jody Bails, and they will be glad to help you in any way they can. We look forward to seeing you and your group in September!
