Life is just a “vapor”

Jeff Swartz – 2006 Board Member/Supplies, Central Ohio Emmaus Community

As I sit at my desk this hot summer afternoon, I ask you to allow me to share some of my thoughts. From a farmer’s perspective, I see corn in the field east of our house producing ears of corn that will soon be harvested. I planted the seed in late April, fertilizing and applying chemicals to the best of my ability and as a steward of God’s soil. Soy beans were planted west of our house and are flourishing thus far with the frequent rains this past summer. They also will soon be harvested. After harvest, the days will become shorter and all the greenery of summer will turn to the greenery we decorate our homes and churches with to celebrate the birth of the Christ child at Christmas. The fields by my house will be barren during the winter just waiting for new life to begin next spring.

As I get older, I must certainly admit that the days, months, seasons, and years pass by so much faster. Life here on earth is, indeed, just only a “vapor” in the scheme of eternity. My pastor, Joe Rhea, asked during church one Sunday “How many of you want to go to heaven?” Everyone, of course, raised their hand and shouted “Yes.” His next question was “How many of you want to go today?” The church was quiet.

We all have more we want to do while here on this earth. Is there something that you need to do today that you have been putting off? Have you been to your share group this week? Have you been to a gathering in recent months? How long has it been since you have been a friend, made a friend, and brought a friend to Christ?

We don’t get the chance like crops in the field to be planted next season. Our season is now! Our life here on earth is just a “vapor.” Go do what you need to do before you evaporate!

Emmaus Share Groups

Perhaps the most important step a new member of the community can take to continue the work started in the Walk to Emmaus is to join a Share Group. The community Good Shepherds are available to help you find just the right group to keep you accountable and help you to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord. Continue your Emmaus experience - join a share group!
