Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God never fails, not ever. If we ever have a moment of hesitation or doubt about this all we need to do is think back to our Emmaus weekend. Did He fail then, of course not, will He fail now or in the future, impossible. He can't, it's inconsistent with His character and God can't do anything that is not consistent with His character. What great comfort we can find in this.

As you read this you may be experiencing mountain top times, or perhaps the valley is where you find yourself today. Remember being on the mountain like being in the valley really doesn't matter. What matters is where God is, and He's right there with you. If you don't feel His presence that's ok too. His presence is not contingent on our being aware He is there. Are you yearning to feel close? That's easy too, come to the next gathering, raise a candle during candlelight, volunteer to serve, you'll feel Him, you'll encounter Him and you'll be reminded yet again that God never fails, He can't.

De Colores,

Nanette Overly
