Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

I pray that each of you are having a wonderful Christ filled summer & that this letter finds you all well & looking forward to this summer's upcoming Emmaus walks! When I was asked to write a letter for this edition of the Rooster, I prayed on it asking God, "What can I share that would effectively touch the hearts of those reading this?" With so much conflict and controversy in the world today we need to take a stand as Christians to hold steadfast to our faith. The following is a poem written by Maya Angelou describes what being a Christian meant to her and its such a wonderful, humbling description I feel it's words tug at my heart every time I read it. I know some of you may have read it already and if you were on a walk with me, chances are you have a copy. This poem has become so meaningful to me I've managed to work it in to almost every Emmaus talk I've ever given! So if you have previously read it I know something new will reveal itself to you, and if this is your first time reading it please prayerfully drink in the words, as I'm sure it will speak to you! May God Bless You All!

DeColores,

Lori Cripe

Lay Director Walk #117

Christians

When I say..."I am a Christian"
I'm not shouting "I'm clean livin"
I'm whispering "I was lost,
Now I'm found and forgiven."

When I say..."I am a Christian"
I don't speak of this with pride.
I'm confessing that I stumble
And need Christ to be my guide.

When I say ..."I am a Christian"
I'm not trying to be strong.
I'm professing that I'm weak
And need His strength to carry on.

When I say..."I am a Christian"
I'm not bragging of success.
I'm admitting that I failed
And need God to clean my mess.

When I say..."I am a Christian"
I'm not claiming to be perfect.
My flaws are far too visible
But, God believes I'm worth it.

When I say..."I am a Christian"
I still feel the sting of pain.
I have my share of heartaches
So I call upon His name.

When I say..."I am a Christian"
I'm not holier than thou,
I'm just a simple sinner
Who received God's good grace, somehow!
