Volume 31 Number 5, November 2015 www.centralohioemmaus.org

To the Emmaus Community,

How does one persevere in life with all the struggles and problems you face? One choice is to give up and let life dictate your actions. Another option is to face these struggles and problems face to face and look forward to tomorrow. We all face difficulties throughout life. The demands of life provide many opportunities to not only enjoy the good times but also struggle through the low points of our lives.

I have come to realize we can't go through life without a relationship with God to help us during our struggles and also find joy in the good times. God works through many means to see us through these times. Our church family, Christian friends and the Emmaus Community provide the support we need to see tomorrow. As long as we keep our eyes on Him we'll be all right.

In 1984 I went on the Central Ohio Men's Emmaus Walk No. 2. It was an outstanding experience providing me the means to grow spiritually. Throughout my spiritual life since my walk, I have tried to listen to God give me directions on how to better live my life. For many years I was not actively involved in Emmaus and not part of a Share Group. Even during this time God used me in other ministries such as Chrysalis and Kairos. Perhaps God felt I needed a broader perspective on how other ministries work to strengthen His kingdom. I honestly felt that I didn't need Emmaus due to my involvement in these other ministries.

Even during this time when my wife Susie was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, and my loss of a job, we felt the love of God from our Christian friends and church family. During this time I started attending a Share Group and to this day they have supported us with their prayers. These times were definitely low points in our lives. The good Lord made sure we didn't face these challenges alone.

In 2009 I was asked to be involved in an Emmaus team. I resisted for weeks, but as you know God kept persisting until I said "yes". I am sure happy I did. Since that time I've had the opportunity to serve on a number of teams, and was the Lay Director for Men's Walk No. 68. WOW, what an amazing experience! God even can use an old guy like me. God has used me through Emmaus to bring His "Good News" of love and forgiveness to others. We all are called to serve Him regardless of our age and experiences. God has provided my family the strength to persevere in anything we face today or tomorrow.

God Bless and DeColores,

John Morehart
